

DIPLOMA

This is to certify that

Karina Wollsen

has satisfactorily participated in and completed the

Mediator General Training Course

- for lawyers and other professionals, approved by The Danish Bar and Law Society and provided by The Association of Danish Law Firms, in three modules, between

31st of January 2022 and 3rd of May 2022

58 Professional Development Points

The Course is built on three pillars. It is based on recent research, has an international dimension, and is directly linked to legal practice. The design of the Course is approved by the Ministry of Justice for mediation in court cases and has been in use since the Court Mediation Project started in Spring 2003.

The Training Course covers

- The nature of conflict
- Ethics
- Mediation Stages and Skills
- Conflict management
- Civil and commercial mediation
- Family mediation
- Evaluative mediation
- Facilitative mediation
- Techniques for effective mediation
- Lawyer's role in representing parties
- Mediating with multiple parties

Trainers

Advokat, mediator og retsmægler Mogens Yde Knudsen, Extensio
Advokat, mediator og retsmægler Finn Lænkholm, Lænkholm Mediation
Mediator Lawrence Kershen, QC, England

Lawrence Kershen

Mogens Yde Knudsen

Finn Lænkholm

Jens Steffensen, Kursuschef
På vegne af Danske Advokater

